Preferred location

An exhibitor can specify a preferred location. The current map is available on www.no-dig-event.nl, showing the available locations, the locations in option and the locations which are no longer available.

If the exhibitor specifies a preferred location that is already an option with another exhibitor, the organization will contact that other exhibitor. The other exhibitor has a maximum of 2 working weeks from that moment on to effectuate her option. After that, the option expires and the location can be made available to the exhibitor.

Booth number of preference (only if available):

Terms of payment

Payment for participation in the NSTT No-Dig Event can be requested by NSTT from the moment of signing this contract by both exhibitor and NSTT No-Dig Event.

The NSTT applies a payment term of 30 days.

From the moment of registration, all exhibitors will be included with their name / logo on the website of the NSTT No-Dig Event and in the Event newsletters.

Cancellation

If the NSTT decides to cancel the NSTT No-Dig Event, each exhibitor will receive the amounts paid by it, minus € 125.

If an exhibitor decides not to participate in the NSTT No-Dig Event, the following scale applies:

- If participation is canceled before April 1st, 2023, € 125 will be charged to the exhibitor
- If participation is canceled on or after April 1st, 2023 but before June 1st, 2023, 20% of the total amount will be charged to the exhibitor
- If participation is canceled on or after Jun1st, 2023 but before August 1st, 2023, 50% of the total amount will be charged to the exhibitor
- If participation is canceled on or after August 1st, 2023 but before October 1st, 2023, 90% of the total amount will be charged to the exhibitor
- If participation is canceled on or after October 1st, 2023, 100% of the total amount will be charged to the exhibitor

The above amounts are offset against amounts already paid.
